To Our FATHERS AND MOTHERS

And To Our WONDERFUL GRANDPARENTS

Whose devotion through the years
deserves a greater tribute.

I'd like to think when life is done
That I had filled a needed post,
That here and there I'd paid my fare
With more than idle talk and boast,
That I had taken gifts divine
The breath of life and manhood fine
And tried to use them now and then
In service for my fellow men.

P R O L O G U E

It was back in the fall of 1956 that the writer of this Bolen and Rea history became interested and decided it would be a worthwhile and interesting hobby.

It has indeed been a great pleasure, but has taken a lot of my time and effort and has not been an easy task to gather such information.

In presenting this record the writer desires to express her appreciation and thanks to any and all who have contributed aught to the cause in which we are all more or less interested.

My one regret is that I was not able to get a more complete record of dates and names and that I was not able to present the facts in a more eloquent and pleasing style.

Traditions may arise, abide awhile and disappear;

Only the facts we know and trust are written here.

Respectfully submitted

Rea Bolen was a very affectionate mother and grandmother, and was always willing to lend a helping hand wherever needed. She was always interested in civic and church affairs and was a kind and friendly neighbor.

Joseph and Mary A Bolen had three children born to them while they still lived in Ohio, Earnest, Eddie Rea, and Alonzo Bolen. In 1872, Joseph and Mary A. Bolen moved to Starke County, Indiana. They lived that first winter in a log cabin with a dirt floor. It was truly a winter filled with hardships. This log cabin was located across the river about two miles north of the home they built later. After this first winter, they moved to another log cabin west of the home they built four years later. It was in this log cabin where two of their children were born, Izora and Lyman.

In 1886, the Joseph Bolen family moved into their new home, where they lived until about the year 1918, when he retired and they moved to Knox, Ind., where they lived until they passed away.

Joseph and Mary Bolen were prosperous farmers, and were known and respected in their community. They were truly pioneers. They enjoyed having their family together and enjoyed their grandchildren to the utmost. The welcome mat was always out to the many friends, neighbors and relatives that came to their home.

AS WE GROW OLDER

A little more tired at close of day,
A little less anxious to have our way,
A little less ready to scold and blame,
A little more care of a brother's name,
And so we are nearing the journey's end
Where time and eternity meet and blend.
And so as we go down the way
That leads to the gates of a better day,
A little more laughter, a few more tears,
And we shall have told our increasing years.
The book is closed and the prayers are said,
And we are part of the countless dead.
And so we are going, where all must go,
To the place where the living may never know,
Thrice happy if then some soul may say,
I'm better because he passed my way.

THE REA FAMILY
HISTORY
OF
A MOST WONDERFUL FAMILY

Five duties line each mortal's path
That leads to life's far border:
To love; to learn; to serve; to earn;
To set one's house in order.

THE REA FAMILY HISTORY

The following is copied in part from a paper that has been handed down to this writer.

On the paternal side we trace the lineage through John W., David and John, to Robert Rea. Each one was the oldest of his father's family.

Robert Rea, whose ancestry were Scotch of Celtic origin, settled in Culpepper County, Virginia, about the year 1760 and removed to Logan County, Ohio, in 1803.

On the maternal side, his ancestry were of strictly Puritan stock, moving from Massachusetts to New York, thence to Ohio, in 1836. The maternal grandmother of Mary A. Rea Bolen, whose maiden name was Dunham, was a first cousin to John Hancock, their mothers being sisters.

According to another record, Robert Rea was the first of the Rea family that came to America, and he was an Irishman. It was also told to this writer that the Skidmore family came to America on the same boat. Also Robert Rea's son, John Rea, lived in Tennessee. This John Rea was the father of David Rea.

DAVID REA

David Rea was a soldier in the War of 1812. David Rea's first wife was Shelia Skidmore. They were married in Logan County, Ohio.

David and Shelia Rea were early pioneers in Logan County. David secured his land through profits of a sugar camp. For his auger used in tapping sugar trees, he paid two coon skins, and was compelled to go to Urbana, Ohio, a distance of twenty miles, to get the auger.

He cleared the land and built a log cabin where they made their home.

Shelia died in childbirth when her first child, John W. Rea, was born.

David Rea later married Shelia's sister, Ruth Skidmore. Ruth Skidmore Rea was born April 11, 1806.

David and Ruth Rea were the parents of six children.

John W. Rea, son of David and Shelia Rea,

- (1) David Rea
- (2) Joshua Rea
- (3) Ruth Rea Hisey
- (4) Caroline Rea Perkins
- (5) Shady Rea Heath
- (6) Fanny Rea Brooks

JOHN W. REA*Born Sept. 8, 1821.*Died Jan. 27, 1897.

John W. Rea was the first child born to David Rea, and he was Shelia Rea's only child. John W. Rea was born in Logan County, Ohio.

On Oct. 20, 1842, John W. Rea was married to Miss Lucinda M. Wait, of Union County, Ohio.

John and Lucinda Rea lived in Ohio until their children were educated and married.

In the spring of 1872 John and Lucinda moved to a farm near Ober, Indiana. They lived on this farm until their deaths. They are both buried in the Crown Hill Cemetery, east of Knox, Indiana.

LUCINDA (WAIT) REA*Born Sept. 8, 1821.*Died Aug. 22, 1895.

Lucinda Rea, wife of John W. Rea, received her teacher's license on April 10, 1835. She taught school in Barre, New York, where she grew to womanhood. She taught school about the years of 1835-1840. Her salary was eight and one-third dollars (\$8 $\frac{1}{3}$ ) a month. She boarded with her scholars, taking turns in one home then another. What a treat it was to have the teacher in the home for a week or two.

Lucinda never learned to use a steel pen. She always did her writing with a quill. In later years when she wanted to write a letter she would go to the barnyard, secure a quill, and make the only kind of pen she cared to use.

Children of John W. and Lucinda Rea:

- I Oliver A. Rea
- II Amanda S. (Rea) Williams
- III Mary A. (Rea) Bolen
- IV Shady Rea
- V David Rea
- VI Able Rea

(David Rea and Able Rea were twins.)

I OLIVER A. REA

Skidmore, M.D. Oliver Rea attended the Cincinnati College of Medicine and Surgery and the Hospital College of Medicine, Medical Department, Central University of Kentucky, Louisville. From the latter of the institutions he was graduated, valedictorian of the class, in June, 1883. He commenced the private practice of medicine in August, 1876, at Knox, Indiana, continuing there until March, 1880, when he moved to Marmont (now Culver, Ind.).

Oliver A. Rea lived a busy and interesting life. He belonged to medical societies, lodges, and was U. S. pension examining physician surgeon and was a medical examiner for several insurance companies. Dr. Oliver A. Rea contributed many articles for medical literature and journals.

Dr. Rea served three years as a private and a non-commissioned officer in the Union Army. During this time he was captured. He escaped from the rebels at Staunton, W. Va. H. H. Blakely was his companion during this exciting and adventurous escape. During this campaign they lived off the country on cream, butter and raw potatoes. During the twenty-one days of their escape they crossed the Allegheny and Cheat mountains and arrived in Beverly, W. Va., where they found the 28th Ohio and 10th W. Va., cavalry, Union. Dr. Rea was discharged June 20, 1865, the close of the war.

On Dec. 28, 1876, Dr. Rea and Miss Sylvia A. Green were married. The wedding took place in Marysville, Ohio.

Dr. Oliver A. Rea was physician at the Culver Military Academy for ten years. The Dr. Rea family moved from Culver to Rochester in 1910.
